A learning outcome is considered successful for any of these conditions related to the pre- and post-test:

For PK through Grade 2

- A student who pre-tests a score of 1-3 should improve by at least one item on the post-test.
- A student who pre-tests a score of 4-5 should maintain either score or improve on the post-test.

For Grades 3 – 8

- A student who pre-tests a score of 1-7 should improve by at least one item on the post-test.
- A student who pre-tests a score of 8-10 should maintain a score in that range or improve on the post-test.
Grades 4-8 Test
Fighting Fair: Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. For Kids

1. Dr. King said, “The strong man is the man who can stand up for his rights and not ________ ________.”

2. Fighting Fair means we attack the ________, not the ____________.

3. One key peacemaking technique, the I-Statement (also called “I Care Language” in the book) includes four elements. Identify at least three.
   a.
   b.
   c.

4. Throughout his role in America’s civil rights movement, Dr. King insisted that we must never fight violence with ____________.

5. People such as the Selma Marchers, Freedom Bus Riders, children’s crusaders, sit-in demonstrators, conscientious objectors, and others showed us that despite our very real fears when facing any conflict, injustice, or even violence against us, we must still take __________.

6. After Rosa Parks’ refusal to surrender her seat on the bus, civil rights activists in Montgomery, Alabama took nonviolent action by organizing and carrying out a __________ of the bus system.

7. In any conflict or relationship, we always have a choice as to whether we want to build __________ or __________.

8. Anyone who wants to make peace in the world must, like Dr. King, have a __________ of what he or she wants the world to become.

9. A nonviolent problem-solving strategy in which two disputants work together to create their own solution, with help from someone else who stays neutral:
   - a. Lawsuit.
   - b. Civil disobedience.
   - c. Apology.
   - d. Mediation.

10. Circle “T” for True or “F” for False.
    T    F    Only African-Americans benefit from the ongoing struggle for civil rights.

© Peace Education Foundation. All rights reserved. These answer keys may be copied for any person teaching lessons from his or her own corresponding PeaceWorks Teacher’s Guide.
Grades 4-8 KEY

Fighting Fair: Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. For Kids

1. Dr. King said, “The strong man is the man who can stand up for his rights and not __________ __________” (hit back; “fight back” or similar wording).

2. Fighting Fair means we attack the ________ (problem), not the __________ (person).

3. One key peacemaking technique, the I-Statement (also called “I Care Language” in the book) includes four elements. Identify at least three. (three from (1) say the other person’s name; (2) say how you feel; (3) identify the problem, what happened; (4) say what you want / suggest a fair solution)
   a.
   b.
   c.

4. Throughout his role in America’s civil rights movement, Dr. King insisted that we must never fight violence with __________ __________ (violence).

5. People such as the Selma Marchers, Freedom Bus Riders, children’s crusaders, sit-in demonstrators, conscientious objectors, and others showed us that despite our very real fears when facing any conflict, injustice, or even violence against us, we must still take __________ (action).

6. After Rosa Parks’ refusal to surrender her seat on the bus, civil rights activists in Montgomery, Alabama took nonviolent action by organizing and carrying out a __________ (boycott) of the bus system. (Note: in processing answers, you may want to point out that the boycott lasted 381 days, from December 1955 to December 1956.)

7. In any conflict or relationship, we always have a choice as to whether we want to build __________ or __________ (walls, bridges).

8. Anyone who wants to make peace in the world must, like Dr. King, have a __________ (dream, vision) of what he or she wants the world to become.

9. A nonviolent problem-solving strategy in which two disputants work together to create their own solution, with help from someone else who stays neutral: (d)
   - a. Lawsuit.
   - b. Civil disobedience.
   - c. Apology.
   - d. Mediation.

10. Circle “T” for True or “F” for False.
    T  F  Only African-Americans benefit from the ongoing struggle for civil rights. (F)